

SIMS EXPRESSES WARM TRIBUTE TO RED CROSS

"Government officials can make no expenditures, even for the relief of suffering and in aid of our disabled heroes. In the many urgent cases that have not been foreseen and provided for by law; and often the necessarily cumbersome machinery of government departments renders prompt action difficult if not impossible.

"The Red Cross can and will perform these essential services promptly and efficiently to the extent rendered possible by public support. It has demonstrated its efficiency both in the great war and in peace, and deserves the support of all who have the health and welfare of our people at heart.

"WILLIAM S. SIMS, 'Admiral.'"

RED CROSS HELPS SOLDIERS IN CAMP

Life in any military or naval camp at present, especially in the hospitals, would be considerably dull were it not for the Red Cross. It is the same everywhere. Red Cross these veterans, sick or well, find serving them, now, even though two whole years have elapsed since the war ended.

One of the principal features of its work is the entertainments it arranges. Each night in every theater or hut in camp, a movie show is given, with a full vaudeville show as an added attraction at least once a week. In the hospital wards where the patients are too ill to leave their beds, these shows are staged there for them. The convalescent houses and huts of the Red Cross are the enlisted men's clubhouse. In them are held not only the shows, but frequent parties as well, just as was done when most of America's young manhood was frequenting such places. Excursion trips for the wounded, too, are furnished by the Red Cross. Athletic equipment of almost every description can be had at every camp for the asking.

The work of the Military Relief service in the Central Division at present is confined to the five camps in this section—Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Camp Grant, Ill.; Ft. Des Moines, Ia.; Camp Custer, Mich.; and Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

Thousands of the wounded, sick and well soldiers and sailors in these camps swear by the Red Cross—not any more stanchly, however, than the many other thousands still in the service and the millions who have left it. They have the Red Cross to thank for many pleasant hours and attentions they would not enjoy had the organization demobilized its army of military workers and let the memory of the men still in the hospitals and camps slip from its mind.

Health is the second blessing that we mortals are capable of—a blessing that money cannot buy.—Isaac Walton.

Election results printed in these columns on Friday gave Cohagen a majority of over six hundred over Tiley. Mr. Tiley has called our attention to the vote which shows Mr. Tiley to be less than two hundred votes behind Mr. Cohagen. The result is the same in the end but we want to be accurate and so make this correction.

RED CROSS JOINS NEBRASKA TOWNS

Rural Districts Taught Wholesale Entertainments Through Community Work.

Counties in Nebraska show how the spirit and breadth of the peace program of the American Red Cross is touching the countryside American and helping solve the problem of rural life.

One of the first steps of community life in this country has been along the lines of community organization, whereby disinterested, disorganized townships have been organized to meet on a common ground and work together with a joint purpose.

The awakening of the community spirit has been brought about largely by means of frequent community meetings in different towns. Bringing people together in this way has resulted in a realization of their common needs and the desire to work out their mutual problems together.

The better understanding which has grown out of these community gatherings has effected the establishment of social centers in various towns, whereby social interests and its benefits are afforded the people during the long winter evenings.

These community studies have been formed by many of the smaller chapters and branches. The chapters carry their work to all surrounding communities. The citizens throughout the counties take a thorough interest in the work and assist in the organization whenever possible.

NEBRASKA SCHOOLS PLAN HOT LUNCHES

The school hot lunch is being advocated by some Red Cross workers throughout the state of Nebraska as a solution of underweight among school children. In many of the rural schools of the state the plan has been carried out with success.

Many reasons have been given for the small percentage of schools that have carried out the hot-lunch plan—lack of time for the teacher to prepare the lunch, lack of funds from which to provide it, and lack of co-operation on the part of the parents, many of whom feel it is a new-fangled idea and most unnecessary.

All of these problems are being solved in the communities by the Red Cross through demonstrations of simple methods of preparing the lunches. With the coming of the school hot lunch as a firmly established institution, better nourished children and better students should result.
